IX.—Reports of Committees.

I. ON EDUCATION.

Having given attention to the various documents referred to them, your committee beg leave to present the following report in reference to the several educational Institutions under the patronage of the Conference.

I. DREW THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The official Report of the Visiting Committee to Drew Theological Seminary in May 1878, of which the Rev. B. C. Lippincott of our own conference was a member, informs us that its members were impressed with the beauty of the location, with the ability and thoroughness of the faculty; with the piety and devotion of the instructors, by which they reproduce their Christian life in that of the students. Our ministers are earnestly recommended to encourage young men who are called of God to the work of the ministry to profit by the great opportunities there offered.

They invite the laymen and friends of our Church to respond liberally to the call now made by President Hurst for the re-endowment of the institution.

In harmony with this effort and having reference to information just received from the faculty of the Seminary, we are pleased to learn that the enterprise of re-endowment has gone forward most encouragingly during the past year. Specially are we pleased that the project of raising a fund of $40,000 for the establishment of a professorship in memory of the late Bishop Janes, and which this Conference was one of the first to approve, has advanced so rapidly. A year ago the aggregate of subscriptions to it stood at a little over $8,000. Since that time, twelve annual conferences and several congregations have taken action in its behalf, with the result of $27,000 additional subscription, so that now the aggregate stands at a little over $35,000, and within about $5,000 of completion. Although regretting that circumstances are not in some respects more favorable, yet in view of all the facts, and particularly of our relation to the life and history of Bishop Janes, as well as our direct connection with the institution itself, we feel that the time has come for us to do our part towards completing the endowment of the Janes Memorial Fund. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the members and friends of the New Jersey Conference at its present session be invited to subscribe in behalf of this object.

Resolved, 2. That whereas ministers and laymen of this Conference have already subscribed $1,600 to the Janes Memorial Fund, we will endeavor to increase that subscription to at least $4,000, or our tenth of the amount needed.

II. DICKINSON COLLEGE.

WHEREAS, We have learned from the Report of the President of Dickinson College, and from the Report of our Conference visitor, Rev. Geo. B. Wight, both of which have been submitted to our consideration, of the increased prosperity of this venerable institution, therefore Resolved, 1. That with a view to secure increased appreciation on the part of our people on the subject of higher education, and the claims of our institutions, the preachers be and hereby are earnestly advised and requested to preach specifically on the subject upon the Sabbath of the week during which the day of prayer for colleges occurs. (See Discipline 247, § 3).

Resolved, 2. That we heartily commend to young men in our bounds contemplating a college course, the facilities and advantages furnished by the institution under our own special patronage—Dickinson College.

Resolved, 3. That we hereby express our concurrence in the proposed amendment to the Charter of the College, relative to the term of membership in the Board of Trustees.

Resolved, 4. That the proposal to celebrate in 1883 the Centenary of the College, impresses us as eminently proper, and that we will be disposed to unite with other friends of the institution in a suitable commemoration of this interesting event at the time of its occurrence.

III. BORDENTOWN FEMALE COLLEGE.

We have carefully considered the Annual Reports of the Rev. W. C. Bowen, M. A., President of the College, as well as that of the Rev. D. Moore and W. P. C. Strickland, the visitors appointed at the last session of Conference, who visited the institution on the occasion of the last commencement; Therefore Resolved, 1. That we are gratified in being able to report the continued prosperity of this institution, evidenced in part by the fact that the number of students during the past, has been one-third greater than during the previous academical year.

Resolved, 2. That we commend the Bordentown Female College to the patronage of those of our people seeking an institution of high grade, conducted on Christian principles.

IV. PENNINGTON SEMINARY.

Your Committee beg leave to report that they have carefully considered the Reports of the Official Committee of Visitors, representing the New Jersey, Philadelphia and Baltimore Conferences, of the President of the Seminary, as well as that of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees for the year ending March 12, 1879.

It is with pleasure that we call attention to the continued prosperity of this institution. The last graduating class numbered 20, of whom 11 were ladies. Of the young men, one entered Princeton, two Wesleyan University, and eight Dickinson College. The number of pupils at present in attendance is 214. A deep religious interest has prevailed during the past year, over 50 having been converted. Such improvements are worthy of notice. A Mansard roof has been placed on the central section of the building, which has been paid for as per the agreement of Dr. Hanlon with the Trustees, and the prescribed bond has been given; hot and cold water has been introduced at a cost of $1000, and tank-room for 6400 gallons, affording bathing facilities, has been provided.

From the Report of the Treasurer we learn that the funded debt of the institution is $20,510.81; floating debt, $14,618.49, making a total indebtedness of $35,129.30. The report shows a debt reduction for the year of $1548.26, which is exclusive of payments made during the present session of Conference. Of the $15.020 subscribed March 20, 1877, there have been paid $4225. Of the 167 subscribers, 15 have paid in full, 65 have paid both instalments, 45 have paid but one instalment (one-fifth of the whole subscription), and 39 have paid nothing. The amount of present deficiency in these payments is $2521. Therefore Resolved, 1. That the prompt payment of the subscriptions made in 1877 is essential to the preservation of Conference honor, and of individual reputation for integrity. To fail in redeeming pledges so grandly and so solemnly given would be to do ourselves and our work irreparable injury.

Resolved, 2. That the committee deem it desirable, that the Board of Trustees meet during each session of Conference, with the Committee on Education.

D. P. KIDDER, Chairman.

2. STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church respectfully submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we earnestly exhort all the members of the Church within our bounds, to give themselves to increased watchfulness, prayer, and holy activity, that they may personally realize all the fulness of the Gospel of peace, leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, and going on to perfection.

Resolved, 2. That in order to the true edification of the Church, which is the body of Christ, we enjoin upon our ministry that they render their pulpit teaching more positive as to doctrine, holding forth clearly, justification by faith, the direct witness of the Holy Ghost to adoption, and perfect love as the present privilege of Christian believers.

Resolved, 3. That we strongly urge our people to faithful attendance upon public worship, the sacrament of the Lord's supper, the prayer and class-meetings, as sustaining vital relations to the best interests of the Church, and we hold that the Officiary in all our charges should be examples to the flock in this regard.

Resolved, 4. That it is a solemn religious duty devolving upon Christian parents, to secure the attendance of their children upon the public worship of God, on Sabbath morning at least, that they may come under the direct preaching of the gospel, and that their absence from the sanctuary, now lamentably prevalent, finds no adequate compensation in their presence in the Sabbath School.

Resolved, 5. That inasmuch as the injunction is specifically given in the New Testament, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers," we believe that more attention should be given to this class of attendants at our Church, as well to those appearing in humble garb as those in more costly array, that they may be won to Christ, and introduced to the fellowship of the saints.

Resolved, 6. That while we recognize the value of the Berean Lessons, we urge that the memorizing of portions of the Scriptures, and regular instruction in the Catechism be not omitted.

Resolved, 7. That the attention of the Official Boards of our Churches is called to the general improvement evident in financial matters, and we urge them to take that fact into careful consideration, in their appropriations the coming year for ministerial support, and benevolent work.

Resolved, 8. That in the methods of raising money for Church purposes, full provision should be made for the small contributions of the poor to be made weekly, as best adapted to their circumstances.

Resolved, 9. That we urge our people to more carefulness in business, less expenditures for needless self-indulgences, plainness of attire, and simplicity of living, features of Christian life finding ample sanctions in the New Testament, and our General Rules.

Resolved, 10. That in view of the great efforts which are being made to invade the sanctity of the Sabbath, we regard it as the duty of those holding Camp Meetings to guard well this sacred institution, prohibiting all trafficking on their grounds on that day, and preventing as far as possible unnecessary traveling.

Resolved, 11. That it is of the utmost importance that the Christian women of the Church should be fully organized for aggressive action in the extension of Christ's kingdom, and we rejoice that so many noble workers are being providentially raised up in various departments of Christian activity.

Resolved, 12. That we earnestly recommend the use of our Church Hymnal in our Sabbath Schools, and Meetings for social worship.

CHAS. H. WHITECAR, Chairman.
G. HUGHES, Secretary.

3. ON LADIES' AND PASTORS' CHRISTIAN UNION.

WHEREAS, personal responsibility and active effort under well organized plans continue to be the demands of the Church and the times,

Therefore, Resolved, that we recommend the organization of Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Unions in all our churches.

J. B. WESTCOTT, Chairman.
W. MARGERUM, Secretary.

4. ON SABBATH DESECRATION.

WHEREAS, the sin of violating the Fourth Commandment is alarmingly prevalent in many localities within the bounds of our Conference, and whereas, the sanctity of the Sabbath is necessary to the maintenance of the public worship of God. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we regard the persistent efforts of those who would set aside the laws of the State in regard to the Sabbath, whether they be our native citizens or those of foreign birth, as a direct attack upon the very principles from which have sprung the present greatness and prosperity of the nation.

Resolved, 2. That we solemnly protest against the tendency of Corporations to do ordinary business on the Sabbath—such as the running of freight and passenger trains, whereby a large number of persons employed are deprived of the privileges of the house of God, and thousands are tempted into scenes of dissipation and sin.

Resolved, 3. That it is the duty of the Church to insist that the officers of the civil law watch with increasing vigilance the hotels and saloons, that they be not permitted to sell, clandestinely, on the Sabbath.

Resolved, 4. That we recognize our duty to preach plainly and frequently against these and other forms of Sabbath desecration, and that we will co-operate with the New Jersey Sabbath Union and all who are engaged in the effort, to secure throughout our State a proper observance of the Sabbath.

H. M. BROWN, Chairman.
T. C. CARMAN, Secretary.

5. ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

WHEREAS, The Sunday-School is an institution of Divine Providence, and the history of its growth and usefulness amply proves its need and value, and

WHEREAS, Its work is essential to the growth and prosperity of the Church, bringing, as it does, childhood to Christ, that a cultured and strong manhood may be secured for Him. Therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That we as pastors will faithfully care for the interests of the Sunday-schools, giving all possible attention to their organization and conduct.

Resolved, 2. We will emphasize the disciplinary requirements by employing the Catechism at the most suitable times.

Resolved, 3. The children must be brought into the regular services of the Church, and that it is our duty by all possible means to accomplish this desirable result.

Resolved, 4. We deem the organization of Teachers' Meetings for the study of the lessons a very needful help, and heartily recommend them.

Resolved, 5. The Sunday-school literature of our own Church is both abundant and suitable, and we recommend our people everywhere to use it.

Resolved, 6. The attention and care of our people is asked to the attendance of the children at our own Sunday-schools, that it be regular and uninterrupted by attendance at the schools of other churches.

E. C. HANCOCK, Chairman.
JOHN Y. DOBBINS, Secretary.

6. ON BIBLE.

Your committee believing the Bible to be the only foundation of all true religion and the standard of all Christian excellence, consider it to be of the greatest importance to us as ministers and to our people that we make the Bible Cause more prominent among our benevolences.

We recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we will encourage, in every possible way, the reading and study of the Sacred Scriptures.

Resolved, 2. That we will cheerfully continue our annual collections for the American Bible Society, and especially recommend all our pastors to attend the annual County Bible Meetings.

Resolved, 3. That we recommend our preachers to preach a sermon during the year in their charges upon the Divine Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures.

Resolved, 4. That we recognize with pleasure the appointment of Dr. Hunt, as Secretary of the American Bible Society, and that we will cheerfully welcome him to our Conference in his official capacity whenever opportunity will afford his coming.

C. W. HEISLEY, Chairman.
S. F. GASKILL, Secretary

7. ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals respectfully report:

That from the detailed exhibits presented by the agents they find

That the amounts included in bad debts which have heretofore been reported among the assets, is being rapidly closed out and eliminated from the books.

That a careful examination is being made of the profits or losses from the different Depositories with a view to changing the relations of such as at present entail a loss.

That the entire business shows a moderate profit upon the capital employed.

That in the entire sales both East and West amounting to $1,638,488.61, they find an increase over the previous year of $144,100.89.

They also find a gratifying advance in the circulation of the Periodicals.

The periodical list shows several publications whose circulation is so small as to be non-paying, and the committee recommend their discontinuance.

They recommend an effort to enlarge the business by the usual methods of business solicitation.

They report favorably on the character of our New Hymnal and the various forms in which it has been issued, and feel assured of their eminent adaptation to the needs of the Church.

The Committee believe that the circulation of religious books and periodicals stands next to preaching the Gospel, in the line of the agencies which extend the kingdom of God, and urge increased attention to this department of the work.

The Committee feel that in the death of Dr. Nelson our interests have sustained a serious loss. They indulge however in the belief that a wise selection for his successor has been made in the person of Rev. Dr. Sanford Hunt.

After as careful an investigation of the condition of our books and periodicals as we have found possible to make, we report the management of those interests as deserving the confidence of the members and friends of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

8. ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

Your Committee on the Tract Cause offer the following report:

WHEREAS, Tracts are a valuable agency in doing good, their size and form being favorable to a general distribution. And

Whereas, The Tract Society is constantly adding new tracts to their list on a great variety of subjects adapted to the Church, and the masses of needy people whom the Church is endeavoring to reach. Therefore Resolved, 1. That we esteem our Tract Society as one of the conservatives of the peculiar doctrines of Methodism, also a means of keeping before the minds of our people their duty on the Sabbath question, Temperance and practical experimental godliness.

Resolved, 2. That we recommend the members of this Conference to secure as far as possible the distribution of tracts, through a Committee for that purpose, and by taking collections in all our Churches for that object.

9. ON WOMEN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, In its brief history, the Women's Foreign Missionary Society has raised about $510,000, and has sent into its fields about 30 Foreign Missionaries, 200 Bible Readers and School Teachers, and established 125 Girls' Schools, containing 4,000 pupils, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we with pleasure recognize in this organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church one of the most potent agencies for the Christianization of women, and the extension of Christ's kingdom.

Resolved, 2. That the deplorable degradation of women in heathen lands, and the demonstrated efficiency of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society in this field of labor, appeal eloquently to us for the establishment of a branch society in each of our charges, as well as for zeal on the part of pastors and people in spreading the current literature of this organization.

Resolved, 3. That in the early death of Mrs. Lucilla H. Cheney, M. D.—the daughter of Rev. Enoch Green, of this Conference—who died at Nynee Tâl, India Conference, September, 1878, we recognize the loss of one eminently qualified for the mission work by the thorough consecration of her brilliant gifts and attainments to the cause of her Master.

Resolved, 4. That in the beautiful consistency of her exemplary Christian life, as in her untiring devotion to the work which enlisted her mind and heart, we have our best consolation in this hour of sadness, as well as the sure pledge of her abundant entrance into the everlasting kingdom of her Lord.

Resolved, 5. That, as a Conference, we extend to the sorrow-stricken family and friends our profoundest sympathies, and bow with them in trustful submission before the mysterious providence which has removed from the field of toil to her reward, one whose early labors were so full of promise and of hope.

10. ON TEMPERANCE.

The Committee on Temperance offer as their Report the following propositions:

1. Christians should be most active where there is most danger. Intemperance harms men as no other vice can. It is at present the most successful assailant of human interest.

2. The men who sustain and defend intemperance are serving the cause of sin more effectually than any others. Liquor-selling is an immoral business. Liquor-sellers are immoral men. The laws that sustain them are bad laws, and a disgrace to Christian civilization, and ought to be repealed. Legislators who vote at the bidding of the liquor traffic, and refuse to hear the voice of the moral and religious public, are virtually in league with the liquor dealers, and equally with them deserve the scorn of good men and women.

3. The voters who send such men to the legislature are responsible. It is time for men to vote as they pray, and vote for good men only, and men pledged on the side of temperance. The vote of every minister should be a vote for righteousness; so every good man's vote should be.

4. Good men's sympathies should be with all forms of temperance activity. We bless all temperance organizations, and wish success to all temperance workers. We will do all we can to aid. We call on all our people to do the same.

5. We need instruction on this subject. We should read. The publications of the National Temperance Society of New York are worthy of general circulation. We rejoice that our religious weeklies are giving space to temperance items.

6. We commend the self-sacrificing efforts of one of our own honored brethren, Rev. J. B. Graw, to publish a temperance paper at a low price; we request all to aid in its circulation, that the people may be enlightened.

7. The New Jersey Temperance Alliance is doing a good work, is right in its claims, and wise in its methods, and deserves our heartiest sympathy and support. We recommend the observance of the second Sunday in May as temperance Sunday, and the taking of a basket collection for the funds of that society.

8. Women have done and are doing glorious work for temperance, and should receive our earnest support.

9. We commend to the notice of all our Churches the recommendation of the General Conference use of unfermented wine in the communion service.

10. The renting of property for the purpose of liquor-selling, and the signing of applications for license are violations of our discipline.

11. That we protest against the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors by druggists, and call for such enactments as will enable the people to protect themselves from its demoralizing effects.

J. W. MORRIS, Secretary.

11. ON THE FREEDMEN'S AID SOCIETY.

No greater trust was ever committed to the Christian church of this country, than the freedmen of the South, thrown upon her hands within the last fifteen years.

Four millions of people by the providence of God just redeemed from slavery are struggling for elevation. They pant for knowledge against untold difficulties. The Methodist Episcopal Church seems to be God's chosen, if not chief agency, to help them in their need, and we are glad to learn she has been eminently successful.

The Freedmen's Aid Society, the right hand of her power in this direction, is peculiarly adapted to this work, and we rejoice in the evidence of its usefulness. During the eleven years of its existence, it has disbursed seven hundred thousand, eight hundred and fifty-two dollars and forty cents—a grand total, but the results are grander!

These are, besides the general improvement of colored children and youth of the South, the founding and support of twenty schools, including colleges, theological institutes, etc., in which nearly three thousand students are being educated for teachers and ministers. Can we conceive the full results of these agencies? Eternity alone will reveal them.

We find a small decrease in the collections for this cause in our Conference for the past year, but we believe this is more attributable to the hardness of the times than to a want of interest in the subject, which we believe is rather on the increase.

We present the following resolutions, viz.:—

Resolved, 1. That we will endeavor to inform ourselves and our people on the claims of this cause, and to have a collection reported from every charge.

Resolved, 2. That the Presiding Elders be instructed to effect a proper division of the two thousand dollars apportioned to this Conference to be raised for this society the coming year.

Resolved, 3. That we commend the publication of the two papers committed to us, entitled, "An Appeal for God's Poor," and "Reasons for Supporting the Freedmen's Aid Society," and we recommend their free and generous circulation throughout our church.

Resolved, 4. That we have heard with pleasure of the Educational work among the whites in the South, and we recommend, that funds raised for that specific work, be disbursed by the officers of the Freedmen's Aid Society.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

12. ON SEAMEN'S CAUSE.

The Committee, to whom was referred the interests of the American Seamen's Friend Society, beg leave to offer the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That, as a Conference, we hail with joy the work of God among seamen, and see in it a fulfilment in part of that prophecy, that "The abundance of the sea shall be converted to the Lord."

Resolved, 2. That we recognize the American Seamen's Friend Society as an adapted and chosen instrumentality in the hand of God, in saving sailors; that we rejoice in its past success, and will pray for its continued and increased success.

Resolved, 3. That as the society is as much Methodist as anything else, and marked in all its history by a truly Catholic and Evangelical spirit, we will welcome its representatives to our bounds, and as far as practicable, will aid in the prosecution of its glorious work.

13. ON CENTENARY FUND.

1. The trustees of the Centenary Fund beg leave to report that when they came into office they found a Bond and Mortgage for $1,000 held against a lot and house in Woodstown, belonging to Rev. B. F. Woolston, formerly treasurer of the Fund.

They also learned that the interest on the said mortgage had not been paid for several years. In view of the great depreciation of the property, and the accumulation of interest, they were compelled to take steps to foreelose. Revs. E. H. Durell and R. S. Harris were appointed a committee for this purpose. The legal aetion neeessary was properly looked after, and the property was sold for nearly $800. This sum was borrowed by a member of this Board, and held by him until July last, when it was invested in a First Bond and Mortgage on Greenleaf Park, Ocean Grove. The sum at the time of investment was about $935. The trustees also gave a note for $65 or thereabout, and the association made us a Bond and Morgage for $1000, so that as soon as the interest shall extingnish the note the entire amount of $1,000 originally loaned to B. F. Woolston will be made up. This will be done during the course of the present year, and at the next session of our Conference there will be some interest to pay over to the Board of Stewards.

2. Your trustees also hold a Bond of the trustees of Pennington Seminary for $1,780, executed in 1871. The interest on this Bond has always been paid annually exeept for the year 1877.

Your trustees have been led to question the safety of the above large sum of money, as it has no seenrity exeept a simple Bond, having no elaim upon a single foot of real estate. In the event of a finaneial disaster to the Seminary, this money would be entirely lost. We suggest that your Trustees be instrueted to meet the Trustees of the Seminary during the coming year, and arrange for a satisfactory adjustment of this indebtedness.

XII.—Resolutions.

1. On Camp Meetings.

Whereas, Certain parties of New Jersey and from New York, Pennsylvania and other places have formed joint stock companies, and located at different points within the territory of this Conference, permanent Camp Meeting grounds involving large outlay of money; all in the name and under the prestige of that talismanic word "Methodism," and professedly to aid in fulfilling her mission. And these properties not being deeded in trust to be used, kept, maintained and disposed of, as places of public worship nor for the specific use in any way of the ministry and membership of the M. E. Church; and as they are held by bodies corporate—are under the control of the corporators in all respects, and are in no sense amenable to a Quarterly, Annual or General Conference, and are above and independent of advice or request from Bishops, Presiding Elders or Pastors; and being under the cover of religion and in the name of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and with the professed purpose of advancing her interests, these resorts have been gotten up and their advantages for retirement, devotion, amusement, etc., being spread abroad by systematic advertising has induced many members of our Church and others to visit those resorts, some for a religious, and some for a secular purposes; some for a temporary, and others for a permanent residence; some for worship, and some for traffic and money-making;—thus the attempt to unite the legitimate purposes of a camp meeting with those of a pleasure resort proves necessarily not only abortive, but misleading and demoralizing, as fishing, hunting, boating, croquet, financiering and money-making is no part of the object of a Methodist Camp Meeting.

And these grounds being held by stock companies, and it being the interest of stockholders to adopt such means as will advance their property, those places have become avenues of speculation, and one success in this direction has given rise to another, so that at this date we have two or three in full blast, and others in a formative state.

Thus we go from coal oil speculation to cranberry speculation, and from cranberry speculation to camp meeting ground speculation. The motto being (as expressed by some) "the more land we have, the more money we shall make." And furthermore those corporations are in the habit of announcing the presence of celebrated preachers and issuing programmes or bills of entertainments after the fashion of places of public amusement, of which the following is an example:

1. "One hundredth anniversary of American Independence, July 4th."
2. "New Jersey State Sunday-school Assembly, embracing all evangelical denominations, Saturday, July 12th to Sabbath, July 20th."
3. "Tenth Anniversary of first religious services, Thursday, July 31st."
4. "Six days' Bible reading, August 5th to 10th."
5. "Anniversary of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Sabbath, August 17th."
6. "Annual Camp Meeting, Monday, August 18th to Thursday, August 28th. The singing at the camp meeting will be led by the 'Buell Family,'" etc., etc.

The camp meeting comes last, it would seem, because it is least.

All this doubtless is designed to attract the multitude and so promote the secular business of the place, stores, boarding houses and the like, and religion incidentally.

In view of the above it is no part of our purpose to criticise or gainsay those resorts or places of amusement, as such, but to divorce them utterly from the phraseology that designates them "Camp Meeting Associations of the M. E. Church." Therefore

Resolved, That none of those camp meeting grounds controlled by stock companies within the territory of this Conference have any authorization from the Methodist Episcopal Church, and therefore the Methodist Episcopal Church has no responsibilities financially or otherwise involved therein.

Nevertheless we rejoice in the hope that those palmy days are coming when camp meetings will be restored to their original simplicity and integrity, when if fishing is done it will be for souls, and when boating, sporting croquet, financiering and money-making will be lost in prayer and praise. J. LEWIS.

XIII.—Religious and Anniversary Exercises.

I. MISSIONARY SERMON.

The Annual Missionary Sermon was preached by Rev. E. Hewitt, in the M. E. Church, on Friday afternoon.

The text selected for the occasion was from Revelation 11th chap. 15th verse: "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and His Christ," etc.

The theme of the discourse was "The Universal Reign of Christ in the Earth," and treated under the following divisions:

I. What is the Universal Reign of Christ?

1. Not that every sin shall be destroyed and every man converted, but a very general turning to God; and the religion of Christ the chief influence in the world.
2. All the false systems of religion shall yield to Christianity.
3. All forms of government shall recognize God, and work for the kingdom of Christ.
4. All literature and art shall point to Christ.
5. This kingdom once established, shall continue. It is an everlasting kingdom.

II. The Agencies employed to bring about this Kingdom are:

1. Divine.
2. Angelic.
3. Human.

III. What are the Indications in the World and in the Church of the Fulfillment of this Prophecy?

1. Much has been accomplished already.
2. At the present time the entire world is opened to Christian Missions.
3. The Church has conceived the possibility that the world may be converted.
4. The heathen world is being prepared for the reception of God's truth.
5. The Church is in a better condition for work.
6. The Christian denominations are getttng nearer together.

Dr. Dashiell, Corresponding Secretary of the Missionary Society, followed with some very encouraging statements concerning the great Missionary work.

Facts were presented that greatly affected the large audience.

II. SEMI-CENTENNIAL SERMON

BY REV. GEORGE F. BROWN, D. D.

In the M. E. Church on Thursday afternoon, Dr. G. F. Brown delivered a very interesting sermon upon the fiftieth anniversary of his admission to the travelling ministry.

After some general remarks, he read for a text Psalm xlviii., 11–14, but remarked that this was only a motto, and not in any sense a text.

The Doctor gave a detailed account of his first six months in the work of the ministry, saying first, however, that he was born March 13th, 1809, in the State of New York, "and this day I am seventy years old. Converted at nine years of age, I wish to give my testimony in favor of the early conversion of children.

"I was licensed to preach November 15th, 1828. Left home for my first appointment with a horse nearly blind, and only fifty cents in my pocket. Money soon gone, I found myself in a woody country, surrounded by a severe snow storm, and night coming on. The family that took me in first objected because I was a Methodist preacher. Through the influence of the good wife, however, I was at last invited to stay. This family before I left the circuit was converted. I found four appointments on the circuit; when I left there were 31 and 351 members. On the same ground there are now 25 stations."

The account given by the Doctor of the first conference he attended was full of interest. Taken sick on the way, he was bled four times.

This conference had less than one hundred members, including those on trial. It embraced the territory now occupied by the Philadelphia, Wilmington, Delaware, New Jersey and Newark Conferences.

Very pleasant reference was made to some of the noble men of that Conference—Thomas Ware, E. Cooper, H. Boehm, S. Sharp, L. McCoombs, M. Force, C. Pitman, Dr. Sargent, and others.

The preaching of those days was chiefly doctrinal. The camp-meetings were seasons of great power. One camp-meeting was named, with only 13 small tents, and congregations from 500 to 1,000. Yet at this meeting there were 200 conversions, and an influence went out from the camp that resulted in the conversion of about 2,000 souls.

The Episcopacy and Presiding Eldership were referred to as highly important to the Methodist economy. And the educational interests of the Church must be sustained; the times require it.

Protracted meetings in those days were unknown. Yet the work of conversion went right on. These meetings seem now to absorb the faith of the Church, and conversions are only looked for during such services.

The subject of intemperance was named as the greatest curse of the land. The Doctor exclaimed, "Who has not felt this curse? And yet it goes right on!"

With some pleasant words, this interesting and peculiar discourse ended.

III. ANNIVERSARIES.

I. The Anniversary of the Church Extension Society.—The Anniversary of this Society was held in the M. E. Church on Thursday evening. Rev. J. B. Graw, D.D, presided. The introductory services were conducted by Rev. R. A. Chalker.

After the Treasurer made his report, Rev. Dr. Kynett, Corresponding Secretary of the Society, was introduced, and gave a very interesting and instructive address on the History, Work, Necessity and Characteristics of the Society. He said the society was thirteen years old. It was organized by the General Conference of 1864. The first contribution was in 1865. There have been distributed each year $100,000. Two hundred churches have been erected each year, making 2,400 since the organization of the Society.

The society has saved a number of churches by loaning them money.

The necessity of the work was forcibly illustrated.

Gen. Clinton B. Fisk was introduced as the second speaker.

The General made a very telling address, replete with impressive illustrations. He has especial gift in this direction. His design in the address was to increase the interest felt in the Society, and secure larger contributions to this most worthy and needy cause.

II. Sunday-School and Tract Societies.—The Anniversaries of these societies were held together in the Baptist Church on Thursday evening. Rev. A. J. Gregory presided over the Tract interest, and Rev. J. H. Payran over the Sunday-school interest. Rev. D. McCurdy led the meeting in prayer.

Rev. W. H. Pearne delivered the first address in behalf of the Tract Cause.

He stated that objections had been raised against the Society, because the agent it employs to accomplish good, the tract, is so small. This objection was fully met by the speaker. He beautifully referred to the world, the stars, the Church, and other agencies of God, all composed of small and separate parts.

The following reasons were given in favor of liberally sustaining the Tract Cause:

1. It is so well adapted to the common eye and mind as a means of quickly conveying saving truth.

2. The Tract is pleasing in its appearance, and well suited to attract attention.

3. It will reach many that other and more complicated means fail to reach.

Rev. J. M. Freeman, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Sunday-School Union of the M. E. Church, was introduced, and spoke in the interest of the cause he so well represents.

1. He called attention to some facts, concerning the Sunday-school work, as set forth in the minutes. There are many conversions reported each year in the Sunday-school. But all these conversions are not to be credited to the Sunday-school. There are other influences entitled to the credit of many of them. The faithful pastor and faithful Christian parents are instrumental in the conversion of many of the children of the Sunday-school.

The speaker here took occasion to urge pastors and parents to look carefully after the religious training of the children.

2. He called attention to the fears entertained by some, that the school is becoming less spiritual than formerly, and that the modern methods employed in the school are the cause. This question was fully presented by the doctor. He said some, no doubt, abused the ample means furnished at the present time for Sunday-school work. It is the men, not the means, that we are to condemn. Statistics were given, showing that the number of conversions in the Sunday-school is on the increase.

Some incidents were happily related, designed to encourage teachers in their work.

III. The Missionary Anniversary.—The anniversary of this society was held in the M. E. Church on Sunday evening. Rev. A. Lawrence presided. The treasurer's report showed an increase over last year of $321,21. The whole amount for missions from all the districts is $14,520,16.

Bishop Merrill addressed the meeting upon this important interest of the Church.

He first presented the thought that the Home and Foreign Missionary Work are one. The end is the conversion of sinners; and we are not turning aside from regular Church work when we labor for the conversion of the heathen. The work is laid upon the Church, and she must attend to it. We are apt to speak of the Missionary Society as something apart from the Church; this is a mistake. The truth is, the Church is a missionary Church. It is the Church we mean when we speak of the Missionary Society.

In the second place the Bishop presented very clearly the subject of the debt of our Missionary Society. He said the debt had not come through the mismanagement of any. Here the whole machinery of the Missionary Society was explained. Its Secretaries, Board of Managers, and General Missionary Committee. This General Missionary Committee constitutes the highest authority of the Church upon the subject of missions, and is composed of the Board of Bishops, the representatives from the twelve mission districts, and delegates from the Board in New York, forty-three men in all.

The committee, seven years ago, looking over the whole field, felt that more must be done for the cause, and an appropriation to missions of $885,000 was made. The following year came the panic, and less than $705,000 was raised for missions, thus came the debt. It is gratifying to know that the debt is being reduced.

The condition of the world was reviewed, showing how strong the claim of God is upon us, to work for the conversion of the race.

Dr. J. B. Graw was the second speaker. He said men and means are the need of the cause; and explained the importance and obligation of the command to "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

IV. Temperance Anniversary.—The Temperance Anniversary was held in Walling Hall, on Saturday evening.

Rev. B. C. Lippincott in the chair. Chaplain Given offered prayer.

Rev. J. B. Graw, D. D., was introduced as the first speaker. He said that temperance is a part of religion, and a Christian man must be a temperance man.

He called attention to a few facts as follows:

In this State there are now over 6,000 men authorized to sell rum to make drunkards of our brothers, sons and husbands. And more than this number are engaged in this business unauthorized by law. At the present time not less than 17,000 men and women are selling intoxicating liquors in New Jersey, and less than 2,000 ministers, of all denominations, to stem this awful tide of iniquity.

The rum-seller carries on his business six days in the week, and some, seven days. Think of the work of destruction going on by these men.

The time is coming when, if rum is not put down by law, it will overthrow the government.

The only way out of this evil is, teach total abstinence and prohibition. There is much need of these truths in the churches.

The men that do not believe in total abstinence are in sympathy with the liquor traffic.

The license system was severely handled, showing what a great wrong it is.

The assertion that the prohibitory law does not prohibit, was shown to be false. The speaker had been in Portland, Maine, and tried to get rum and could not.

Christian ministers were counselled to preach on the subject, and be true to God and humanity.

Hon. J. W. Newlin, of Millville, was introduced, and spoke of the work, especially in his own town.

V. The Anniversary of the Freedmen's Aid Society.—The Anniversary of this Society was held in the M. E. Church, on Monday evening, Rev. P. Cline presiding. Rev. Jesse Stiles led in prayer. The report of the Treasurer was read, showing the collections to aggregate 1793.08. A slight decrease from last year. Rev. W. H. Pearne, after reading the report, followed it with some thoughts upon the importance of informing ourselves concerning the Freedmen's Aid Society. It is our duty to become acquainted with the design, work, and needs of this Society.

An earnest appeal was made in behalf of the collection of this Society.

The second speaker was Rev. E. Q. Fuller, D.D., of Atlanta, Ga., Editor of the Methodist Advocate.

He said my mission is to the poorest of the poor. These are the "white trash," and negroes. This work does not antagonize other churches, but joins them in this great mission. It is not a political work, but is the increase of temperance, intelligence, and religion.

Methodism proposes to lift this great mass of five millions of colored people, and millions of poor whites to a higher civilization.

A very dark picture was drawn of the state of things among the colored people of the South. Dreadful accounts were detailed of assassination and murder of these unfortunate people.

This condition of things the speaker sought to explain, by the fact, that while the Church had been true to God, the relations of society have not been respected.

The remedy for this is the application of the Gospel and education. Send them the Gospel; one good old-fashioned Methodist preacher, teaching the people to live holy lives, is worth a thousand soldiers.

The Society has accomplished a great work; twenty high schools have 3000 pupils, and they graduate 100 teachers annually. There are more than 50,000 scholars in other schools throughout the South. This great force of educated men and women are to do the ultimate work of the Society.

VI. The Ladies' and Pastors' Christian Union.—The Anniversary of this Society was held in the M. E. Church on Wednesday evening. Dr. E. H. Stokes presided. Revs. Dr. Kidder, T. Sovereign, J. S. Heisler, participated in the introductory services.

Dr. Stokes stated the object of the Society to be "The encouragement of the sisters of the Church to labor with the pastor in building up the kingdom of Christ, by having special and systematic work assigned to them, such as the distribution of tracts, visiting the poor, the sick, and inducing persons to attend public worship, and children to come to Sunday School."

The first speaker, Rev. G. K. Morris, said that we are not just to women, much less kind. We do not give them the chance to work that we do the men. We should enlist their sympathies in the service of Christ, for the following reasons:

1. Because she can do work for Christ equal to the man. She has the mind and heart for it, and as there are so many more women than men in the Church, the results would be much greater for the cause of Christ.

2. We should be just to woman for the sake of woman. As discipline fits for greater work and greater joys, why deny to woman the opportunity of greater usefulness and richer joys? There is sadness in the face of Christian woman. Give her work, and sunshine will take its place.

3. For the sake of the reward. It is the worker that will be rewarded. The indolent will not know what heaven is. Why deny to woman the joy of service? It is her right. Give it to her, and the Master will say come, enjoy heaven.

Mrs. Rev. T. M. Griffith, the Corresponding Secretary of the Society, was next introduced. She made an earnest appeal to the Church, to give woman work to do for Christ. She spoke of the necessity of fervor in the work, and finely illustrated her point with references to Edwards, Whitefield, Mrs. Palmer, Hester Ann Rogers and others. The spirit of exclusiveness was severely criticized and condemned. She said it is the sheerest mockery to sing, Come ye sinners poor and needy, if we are not willing to go with the poor and Mary Magdalenes to the altar. She answered the various objections made to woman's working.

The preparation needed for the work is to be filled with the Spirit.

IV. SABBATH SERVICES.

The usual Conference Love-Feast was held in the church, beginning at 9 o'clock. Rev. W. C. Stockton had charge of this interesting service. The Spirit of the Lord was present, and there was more than usual liberty. At 10.30 the public services began. Dr. J. B. Graw made the opening prayer. Bishop Merrill announced for his text, John, 12th chapter and 31st verse. "Now is the judgment of this world; now shall the prince of this world be cast out."

The Bishop, in his clear and logical style, gave a masterly exposition of the text. The prince of this world is Satan. The judgment of this world means the turning point, or the crisis of the world. These words point to the death of Christ as the turning point in the history of this world. Satan up to this time seems to have had almost complete control of the race; his power shall now decline.

The personality of the devil was clearly presented, and his complete destruction shown to be the mission of the cross of Christ.

Following the sermon was the ordination of deacons. There were seven ordained to this office.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. P. Corbit, of New York, preached from 1 Cor., 1st chap., 22–25 verses. "The Jews require a sign," etc. He treated the subject under the following divisions:

1. The mystery of the Cross.

2. The wisdom and power of God, illustrated in the cross. The speaker was in one of his happiest moods, and amplified these points in his peculiar style.

Following was the ordination of ten elders. Revs. Sovereign, Brown, Atwood, Lewis and Ashbrook assisted.

In the evening the Missionary Anniversary was held, addressed by the Bishop and Dr. Graw.

The pulpits of the different denominations in the town, and of the surrounding charges were supplied by members of the Conference.

The Anniversaries of the Educational, Bible and Women's Foreign Missionary Societies, were crowded out, because of the press of business.

XIV.—Reports of Presiding Elders.

NEW BRUNSWICK DISTRICT.

SAMUEL VANSANT, P. E.

Atlanticville, Seabright and Oceanic. This charge has been favored with a revival at each appointment.

Barnegat has moved on successfully. The church edifice is being painted and improved.

Bricksburg. Early in the Conference year the church building was sold from us. Since then we have been without a place of worship at this point. Before the sale of the church our society here was small and feeble, and but little of it now remains. There are three other appointments on this charge, Herbertville having been added to it. At these points preaching has been regularly kept up during the year by supplies. Cassville and Harmony are moving on prosperously. A parsonage has been purchased during the year. Cranberry and Bethel. Soon after Conference Brother Bennet, who had been appointed to this charge, after a short illness, was taken to his final reward. Since his death the appointment has been filled by Supplies. A debt of $1,900 has embarrassed the church here for several years. A few weeks since Bishop Simpson preached here, and the amount of the debt was raised. Eatontown and Tinton Falls have had a prosperous year. Embury has done well. The parsonage has been greatly improved. Englishtown. The church at this point—which was commenced last year, was finished and dedicated last fall—is a neat and well located edifice. Farmingdale. This appointment has been struggling on nobly under its heavy debt, meeting its dues in the Building Association. Three years more, it is believed, will relieve it of its burden. Freehold has been moving steadily on. A beautiful pipe organ has been placed in the church during the year.

Goodluck and Bayville. The new church at Bayville is nearly completed. Granville has nothing special. Hamilton and Wall. The church at Hamilton has been greatly improved by painting and refitting. Herbertville has been associated with Bricksburg charge during the year. Hightstown is in a good condition. In promptly meeting its financial responsibilities it has set a worthy and commendable example. Jacobstown and Cookstown have been favored with a gracious revival of religion. Keyport has had a successful year. A glorious revival has crowned the labors and prayers of the faithful pastor and people.

Long Branch—First Church. At one of the out appointments connected with this charge, special services were held last fall by the pastor, and the work of God commenced among the unconverted. The altar was nightly crowded, and many souls were brought to Christ. Long Branch—Centenary. The efforts to raise funds to meet the indebtedness of the church edifice, though repeated and long continued, proved a failure. The debt is about $20,000. Manahawkin and Cedar Run have been refreshed by showers of divine grace. Manchester and Ridgway have been supplied during the Conference year by Dr. John S. Parker.

Matawan. On a part of this charge there has been a gracious work of religion and a large accession to this portion of the charge. Mechanicsville—St. John's, Keyport. A revival here has resulted in 56 conversions, and the Church is in a good condition.

Milltown is prosperous. We have a beautiful church property here entirely free from debt. Morganville and Jacksonville have been supplied during the year by Bro. Randolph, with a fair degree of prosperity. Navesink. A debt of $1,000 on the parsonage has been raised and the house is now free from encumbrance. New Brunswick—First Church. This church has had a year of prosperity. A gracious revival has crowned the labors of pastor and people. The church is in an excellent religious condition and the finances have been well sustained. Pitman Church. The pastor has labored faithfully, and not without some success. St. James has moved steadily on and the interests of the church have been well sustained by the pastor.

New Egypt has been favored with a revival, and about 30 added to the list of its probationers. New Lisbon had a good year with some revival influences. Ocean Grove—St. Paul's has a large congregation, and the church is in a good state religiously. Ocean Port is one of our small appointments, but is aided by an annuity of the interest on $5,000. Old Bridge has been prosperous. Pointville and Wrightstown. At Wrightstown special services were held and a number were added to the probationer's list. Port Monmouth is in a good condition. The Quarterly Conference unanimously asked for the return of the pastor for the third year.

Red Bank.—Six hundred dollars have been raised for improvements and for lifting floating debt. Sayerville has had a good year. The pastor has labored faithfully. A revival added eighteen probationers to the church. Silverton.—For nine months this charge was served by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Graw. Then an attack of rheumatism disabled him for a season. He gave up the charge, and I supplied by Brother Alonzo Chambers till Conference. South Amboy has purchased a lot adjoining the church, which was very much needed, as one side of the church stood just on the line. Squan Village and Ocean Beach. Ocean Beach, I learn, desires to be set off by itself or to be connected with St. Paul's, Ocean Grove. Toms River has a beautiful church-property; but the church-edifice is embarrassed by a heavy debt. We have here a fine Sunday-school, which has been improved by the attention and well-directed efforts of the pastor. The usual religious interest has characterized the church during the year.

Waretown is very feeble and ought to have missionary money or be put with some other appointment. Washington has moved on finely under the labors of its faithful pastor. Financially the District has been somewhat embarrassed during the year. As a whole, however, the interests of Methodism have suffered but little. The churches are in a good religious condition, with congregations of attentive hearers. Our Sunday-schools are in the advance, and promise much to the Church in the future. Notwithstanding the hard times, the subscription list of the Christian Advocate, unsurpassed by any paper in the world, has been enlarged. The apportionments for the Bishop's fund have generally been realized. The cause of Temperance is advancing. God is in his churches, and his truth is triumphing. We are laboring and hoping and praying for greater successes, and trusting for better times.

Our discipline on the religious instruction of children and on Missions has generally been carried out, and we have been trying to work our churches on a Methodist basis.

TRENTON DISTRICT

Extends from Lambertville to Delanco, on the Delaware River, and across the State in a Southeasterly direction, to the Atlantic coast, and embraces nearly the whole of Burlington and Mercer, and portions of Somerset, Middlesex, Monmouth and Ocean counties.

There are 44 pastoral charges in the District, with 62 Churches, 37 itinerant ministers, 11 supplies, 3 supernumeraries, 69 local preachers and 75 exhorters. We own but 20 parsonages in the district, and a great loss is being sustained by our Churches in the constant paying of rents. On my first visit to Marlton I found that the parsonage there had been sold in the interim of Quarterly Conference, without the knowledge of the Presiding Elder, or the consent of the pastor. The funds were applied in the payment of debt on the Church.

In Trenton, the largest city in the District, our Churches are doing well. We have 10 organizations in the city. Green street, the mother Church, has had a good year. God has blessed the labors of the pastor, Bro. Relyea, and some 60 souls have united with the Church as the result of revival services. Collections are larger than last year.

State street, under the pastorate of Dr. Chadwick, has enjoyed a very prosperous year. The indebtedness on the Church property ($7000) has been fully provided for and about $500 spent in improvements upon the Church building. The Church has been greatly blessed spiritually, and about three score of souls saved. All the collections are in advance of last year.

Central has had a successful year. $11,000 have been secured toward paying their debt; leaving about $10,000 yet upon the property, which, with their large membership, will leave them in comparatively easy circumstances. Central is a strong Church, has a large congregation and Sabbath-school, and is probably the banner Church of our Conference in class-meeting attendance. Through excessive labor, the pastor, Bro. Phelps, was quite prostrated for several weeks, but by the Divine blessing is about resuming his work.

Trinity is now in a better financial condition than she has been for several years, and probably the best since the Church was dedicated. The Methodist preachers and people of Trenton have done themselves great credit, and the cause of Christ great service in their noble and united efforts to save this imperiled Church. At the opening of the Conference year there was a large floating debt for back interest on the funded debt, and arrears in all other expenses. In November last, Bishop Simpson was with us, and succeeded in raising a portion of the money, and assisted in laying plans by which the entire amount of floating debt was provided for, and the money is now paid. The people of Green St. and State St. Churches deserve special mention in this matter. The pastor, Bro. Stiles, has worked faithfully and successfully.

Union and Warren streets have done well. Both have been favored with revival influences, and a number have been converted.

Hamilton Avenue Church has enjoyed one of the most prosperous years of her history. Bro. Reed has been abundant in labors in every department. The audience room of the Church has been beautifully frescoed and refurnished, and the entire expense of the improvement paid. This is one of the most promising of our Churches in Trenton.

Broad street and Homestead have been doing well. Clinton Avenue has been suffering all the year from the indiscreet course pursued by some of her members last Spring. Bro. Williams has enjoyed a prosperous year at Lambertville. At Pennington Bro. Lippincott closes his term of three years. His pastorate has been very successful. Our Church in Princeton has had a good year. Bro. White has labored faithfully, and the Lord has blessed his efforts. The congregations are large, and every interest of the Church improving. A handsome iron fence has been erected in front of the Church, and the debt on the Church property reduced by nearly $1000.

A new and beautiful Church has been built at Kingston, on the Rocky Hill charge. Bro. Sawn, who is closing up his third year as a supply there, has had a successful pastorate. The future is full of promise for that appointment.

First Church, Bordentown, under the pastorate of Bro. Strickland has had a year of prosperity, and Bro. Wilson has had another successful year at Trinity. The revival of last Spring resulted in a large accession to the membership of the Church.

Our Churches in Burlington have done well. There have been about 20 conversions at Union street. Bro. Downs closes up his three years at Columbus. Within the past few months the circuit has enjoyed a very precious revival influence, and about 80 souls have been saved.

Pemberton Church has had a blessed year. Bro. Ballard has labored very faithfully and successfully. About five hundred dollars have been spent in painting and refitting the Church, and the entire amount has been provided for. A powerful revival, which is still in progress, has resulted in the salvation of about 100 souls. The pastor's own children are among the number.

Medford has also been visited with a gracious outpouring of the Spirit, and the pastor, Bro. Townsend, rejoices in the fruits of another year of earnest toil. At Moorestown, Cinnaminson, Marlton, Delanco, Greenville, Hamilton Square, Titusville and Bakerville there is nothing special to report.

Bro. Ashbrook has closed up his third year at Bridgeboro, and his 49th in the itinerancy. During his pastorate this charge has been relieved entirely from debt, and the general condition of the Church is good.

At Crosswick there has been quite an interesting work of grace, and a number of souls have been converted. Bro. Lewis, the pastor, closes this Spring the 49th year of his ministry, as a member of Conference.

Bro. Souder is at the end of his three years in Allentown, and though prostrated by affliction for a few weeks, he has closed up the year very prosperously. Vincentown, Lumberton, Florence, Tuckerton, West Creek, New Gretna, Lower Bank and Rancocas, have all enjoyed a good degree of prosperity. At Hartford, in the Atsion circuit, a new church is being erected, and the general condition of the entire charge is improved.

Beverly is in the midst of the most extensive revival known in that community for many years. The past year has been, probably, one of the most successful and happy of Bro. Street's long and useful ministry. At Windsor the parsonage has been enlarged and refitted, and is now a very comfortable home for the pastor. The entire cost of the improvements has been paid. Bro. Morris has had a good year at Mount Holly. The church has been greatly quickened spiritually, and souls have been converted. All the interests of the church are well sustained. This is one of our best charges. The aggregate of probationers on the District this year is over 1,000.

Church Property.—I have carefully inquired concerning the titles of church property. I find the churches and parsonages generally insured and in good condition. In a few places Methodism is suffering for lack of larger and more modern churches. About $15,000 have been paid this year for improvements and upon indebtedness, and about $15,000 more secured in pledges for similar purposes. There are not more than two or three societies who are really burdened with debt, and they are doing well and liable to work through finally.

Ministerial Support.—The salaries appropriated for the pastors have been paid in full, with a very few exceptions. Where this has not been the case it may, in a few instances, be owing to want of adaptation or efficiency on the part of the preachers, but as a rule it has occurred through lack of system and effort on the part of official boards. Our church officers should learn that church business needs care and energy as well as the ordinary business affairs of life. A good financial system, properly worked, will generally secure all the funds necessary for the support of the church. The apportionment for the support of the Bishops is fully met.

Benevolent Collections.—The aggregate of our collections will, I think, be fully equal to last year. Some churches have met their entire apportionments. The collections for Missions will be in advance of last year. Several churches have raised more than their assessments for Missions. Green street and State street have made the largest contributions. Green street is the banner church of the District this year, giving $717.65. This is the largest collection from any church in the Conference. While we make a fair showing in this department, much greater results might be realized if all our Conference collections were taken earlier in the year.

Sabbath Schools.—This interest has received special attention. I have visited and addressed 25 of the schools during the year, besides addresses at anniversaries and other special occasions. This department of our church work is doing finely. I think we have only one or two schools that close in winter. With a very few exceptions the schools are organized into missionary societies. The Berean lessons are generally used, and deservedly popular with teachers and pupils. I have urged the study of our church Catechism in the schools, and I am gratified to find that there is increasing interest in this part of Sabbath School instruction. We have 79 Sabbath Schools, over 1,200 teachers, and about 9,000 pupils.

Class Meetings.—This interest has been brought prominently before the quarterly conferences through reports required from the leaders, and I am glad to report an increasing interest at almost every point in the District in this very important institution of our church. Many of our leaders conduct their classes upon the voluntary plan, and such classes are the most successful.

Books and Periodicals.—The pastors generally take an interest in circulating our church periodicals. The Christian Advocate has probably never been more popular than now. We have quite a large increase in our subscription list this year. Books from our own publishing house are not as fully circulated, either in our homes or Sabbath Schools, as they should be. Our pastors will do a grand work by giving better direction to the reading in our families. The new Hymnal is now used by most of the churches in the District, and is very highly appreciated.

In closing this report, I would say that my time and strength have been devoted to the work of the District. I have held 174 quarterly conferences, missing only 2. I have preached from 3 to 8 sermons a week, attended 58 Love Feasts, an average of one for every Sabbath, and a few on week evenings. I have laid two corner-stones and dedicated one church, assisted in 7 special financial efforts, and delivered special addresses at various places in the District. I have never had so much work, but I have enjoyed it. I have not missed a service or lost an hour on account of illness this year. I would here record my devout gratitude to Almighty God for hi providential and gracious care, and my sincere thanks to my brethren, both in th ministry and laity, for their prayers and uniform kindness and co-operation.

W. W. MOFFETT.

CAMDEN DISTRICT.

S. E. POST.

The goodness of God in preserving me from disease and death inspires my heart with profound gratitude. The work has required all my time, and laid under tribute all my powers for its accomplishment.

Death has dealt gently with God's servants. One of the preachers has lost an excellent wife; another a daughter. The one was the wife of Rev. W. N. Ogborn, and the latter the daughter of Rev. E. Green, who was a missionary to India. The friends of the deceased should have our tenderest sympathies.

The preachers on the district are a noble class of men, fully consecrated to their work and true to the interests of Methodism. One neat church has been built, and another enlarged and greatly improved, without being burdened with debt. Two new and convenient parsonages have been erected and furnished.

Notwithstanding the financial depression, I think the amount raised for our connectional institutions will be equal to, and in some instances larger than last year. Thirty thousand dollars have been raised for the liquidation of debts and the building and improving of church property. The salaries of the preachers, except in a very few instances, have been paid in full.

Revivals have been numerous and powerful, resulting in an addition of nearly fourteen hundred probationers to the church. In the city of Camden alone but a few under six hundred have been received. The pastors of the city are held in high regard as possessing all those elements of power which give success to the Christian ministry. In the country the pastors are held equally high in the esteem of their people, and in some of the appointments there have been revivals of marvellous power. Two of the most noted were at Pennsgrove and May's Landing. These revivals have greatly stirred the Church to activity in the cause of the Master.

The Sunday-schools are, in the main, conducted with efficiency and success, but the catechism is not very generally used, which is greatly to be regretted.

All the collections, I am informed, have been taken in nearly all the appointments, but it is to be regretted that many of our members seemingly have no interest in the institutions for which these collections are taken.

The social means of grace are reported to be much better attended than a year ago, but still there is not the attendance, especially upon class-meeting, which ought to be expected.

I believe it is possible for the Standing Committees, if properly organized, to accomplish vastly more than they have hitherto done for the causes, in whose interest they are supposed to act. I trust there will be an improvement during the year to come.

I have, too, as closely studied every interest of the churches, as was possible under the circumstances, and fully believe, that the district was never better prepared for aggressive work for God and His church than now.

I would hereby record my gratitude, both to the preachers and people, for their uniform respect and kindness during the time I have been on the district.

BRIDGETON DISTRICT.

CHARLES E. HILL.

In entering upon the work assigned me one year ago by Bishop Simpson, it was with many apprehensions of inability that I undertook the discharge of its duties.

The District embraces forty-five charges, the ministerial forces are thirty-nine itinerant ministers, six supplies, four supernumeraries, fifty local preachers, seventy-one exhorters; the membership comprises nearly 1000 full members, and 1500 probationers.

To give the largest amount of labor possible, and equalize that labor in every charge, I gave a Sabbath service to each charge at the first and fourth quarter, and then obtained help from my brethren for Sabbath service during the second and third quarters.

Through the goodness of God during the year my health has continued unimpaired, thus enabling me to conduct every quarterly conference, and preach three times every Sabbath; deliver Sabbath-school and missionary addresses, and administer the Sacrament in those charges supplied by unordained preachers, beside preaching three or four times on week days every week in the year.

The summary of personal labor is as follows:—

I have preached 325 sermons, held 184 quarterly conferences, have attended 48 love feasts, assisted in the dedication of one church, helped in 20 financial efforts, delivered 43 Sunday school and missionary addresses, presided at one district conference, conducted one camp-meeting and assisted in four others; beside taking part in prayer meetings and extra meetings whenever solicited to do so, or opportunity offered.

It has been my constant endeavor to devote my entire time, talents, heart and mind to the spiritual and temporal interests of the Church, not forgetting to observe in detail all the requirements of the Discipline, and to obtain from each preacher quarterly an answer to the questions relating to their duties.

In every Quarterly Conference I have received reports from the leaders respecting the condition of their classes; the amount of pastoral attention bestowed; the average attendance weekly of members and in frequent instances the method of leading class.

I have been favorably impressed with both the loyalty and integrity of the preachers on the district. With very few exceptions they have responded affirmatively to the question "Have the general rules been read this quarter."

Whenever practicable classes have been formed for the religious training of children, and some of these classes have been numerously attended and led by faithful leaders. Early in the conference year the pastors were informed that written reports would be expected from all the committees, and I am glad to say the expectation was met. The Trustees too were likewise informed that a written report should be made at the fourth Quarterly Conference respecting the condition of their Church property, etc.; and nearly all the boards presented detailed reports.

The District Conference held at Elmer, December 3d and 4th, was well attended; and served to attach the preachers and people still more to our Church economy. Every part of the work of a District Conference was attended to. Two were licensed to preach, thirty-seven local preachers had their licenses renewed, one was recommended for deacon's orders, one for elder's orders, and seven were recommended for admission to the travelling connection. Essays were read upon subjects relating to the Ministry, Pulpit, Sabbath-school Work and Workers, the new Hymnal and Class Meetings. On the evening of the third Rev. Dr. Kynett presented the cause of Church Extension in his usually forcible and argumentative manner, to a large congregation, which will not soon be forgotten or fail to produce good results. The Hymnal has been extensively introduced among the Churches. Our Sunday-schools are reported as prosperous. A few schools had not been previously organized into missionary societies, but I am happy to report that all of them are now organized for missionary labor. No money raised in our schools for missions has been used for any other purpose. But I am pained to say that the systematic study of the Catechism in our schools is very generally neglected, and in some schools it finds no place whatever. This neglect should be corrected, for however excellent the Berean Lesson Leaves are in creating an interest in the study of the Bible, they should not, and need not take the place of the Catechism.

The subscription list for the Christian Advocate has not diminished on the district, and the ability with which it is conducted is highly appreciated by our own people.

Our Church property remains in nearly the same condition as last year. The Church at Unionville after seventy years' service has been removed, altered and greatly improved externally and internally, and on the 19th of February was dedicated by Bishop Simpson, free of debt. Much credit is due to the pastor, Rev. S. M. Hudson, for pushing through by purse and influence, this long needed improvement. Other Churches on the district have been renovated. The Church at Port Norris is struggling to be relieved of its financial jeopardy. By the generous endorsement of the district stewards we have undertaken to raise $500 this year by an appeal to the Churches on the District; this appeal was successful. Rev. C. Rollin Smith, pastor at Port Norris has been untiring and faithful in the work of collecting this money, which amount together with $1500 to be obtained on mortgage will place the Church in easy circumstances. In two-thirds of the charges revivals of considerable extent and power are reported, and in every charge some souls have been gathered into the Church.

Our collections for benevolent purposes may fall a little short of the amounts reported last year, but in several instances the sums are larger. The missionary collections will appear as nearly up to the assessment, and the Episcopal Fund apportioned to the district will be fully met. The preachers have diligently endeavored to obtain the whole amount assessed for every object, but owing to the financial depression and the terrible ravages of the storm in October last, and the partial destruction of property and crops, they have not been able to make as good a report as they could desire, or the merits of these objects demand.

The preachers, too, have been devoted to Christ, zealous in their work, looking for their reward in heaven, laboring to advance the Redeemer's kingdom, and save the souls for whom He died. Too much could hardly be said of their patient, earnest, self-denying consecration to the interest of the Church, and I have regretted that in many instances their pecuniary support was not more nearly equal to their necessities and worth. My intercourse with them and relation to them has been marked by increasingly precious ties, and at no period of my ministry have I so fully realized the blessedness of our Christian brotherhood. The churches, too, have received me with courtesy, and treated me with consideration and kindness, for which I bear them in grateful remembrance. Thus in closing my first year's labor on the district, I can say that the work has been blessed to the strengthening of my love for Methodism, the Church, and the Lord Jesus.

XIX.—Memoirs.

REV. JOHN H. BENNETT.

Son of Wm. and Miriam Bennett, was born at Point Pleasant, N. J., and after a brief illness died in Keyport, March 28, 1878. He was converted in 1866, and shortly after his conversion he entered these words in his diary: "Feeling now that I may prepare for some sphere of usefulness, I am convinced that it is my duty to qualify myself for preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ." In the winter of 1868 he entered Pennington Seminary, where he remained until 1871. In September, 1871, he became a student in Drew Theological Seminary, from which he graduated with honor, in May, 1876. He was also graduated from Wesleyan University. He was licensed to preach in 1870; was ordained deacon in 1875, and was appointed by his Presiding Elder to Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island, where he was instrumental in the conversion of more than sixty souls. He was received on trial in the N. J. Annual Conference in 1876, and was appointed to Palmyra, where his labors were abundantly blessed; about thirty were converted and added to the church.

In 1877, he was appointed to St. John's Church, Keyport. In this appointment he was wonderfully blessed in his efforts to build up the Church of Christ; between thirty and forty souls were converted, the membership was greatly quickened, and every interest of the church felt the influence of his Christian devotion and zeal. In his last field of labor, the Lord blessed him with a continuous season of refreshing. In the Sabbath-School, in the class-room, and in the prayer-meeting, his influence was felt by the young and old alike. His name is like ointment poured forth, among the people of St. John's.

Bro. Bennett was a faithful student, an excellent preacher, a devoted Christian, a loving friend and an untiring laborer in the Master's vineyard.

Our brother has passed from labor to reward, his work is done; his sufferings are over, and, to quote his dying words, he has gone to his "heavenly home." Bro. Bennett leaves a widow to mourn his loss. During the brief period of their married life she was to him an earnest and faithful co-laborer in the work of God, and now that he has gone home, with increased zeal she labors for Christ and human souls.

"I'm returning, not departing;
My steps are homeward bound;
I quit this land of strangers,
For a home on native ground."

"I am rising, and not setting,
This is not night, but day;
Not in darkness, but in sunshine,
Like a star, I fade away."

MRS. PHŒBE A. OGBORN.

Mrs. Phœbe A. Ogborn, wife of Rev. W. N. Ogborn, of the New Jersey Conference, and daughter of Samuel and Mary Seeley, was born at Harmony, N. J., October 16th, 1847, and departed this life September 12th, 1878, in the thirty-first year of her age.

At a very early period her mind was deeply impressed with religious truth, and at the age of 13 she was happily converted, and united with the M. E. Church. About ten years after this she became clearly convinced that it was her privilege to be entirely sanctified. After much reading and prayer she was enabled to trust in the blood that cleanseth from all sin, and enjoyed this blessed assurance until the Master called her away.

All through her Christian life she was actively engaged in the Sunday-school, as teacher, and assistant Superintendent, while every department of the work of the Church had her fullest sympathy and co-operation.

Her testimony in the class room and fervent petitions in the prayer meeting were always marked by humility and strong faith, while her life was a constant image of her God.

Her last sickness was very brief. She retired on Tuesday evening, September 11th, seemingly as well as ever. But on Wednesday morning at half-past four o'clock she became suddenly and violently ill, which continued with but little intermission until Thursday morning when notwithstanding medical skill and the constant care of friends she passed to her heavenly home at half-past eight o'clock, having been sick only 28 hours. While suffering, and as she thought dying, she was asked how the future looked, to which she replied very earnestly, "I have no fears whatever." Thus suddenly this beloved wife, devoted mother and earnest Christian has left us for the skies.

The funeral services took place at Smith's Landing, conducted by Bro. G. Reed (who preached the sermon) assisted by Bros. G. H. Tullis, W. T. Abbott, J. I. Corson and C. W. Livezly. Her remains were taken to Hightstown, N. J., where they rest until the resurrection of the just.

LUCILLA H. GREEN CHENEY,

Daughter of Rev. E. Green, of the New Jersey Conference, was born at Lambertville, N. J., July 15th, 1853.

She was religiously inclined from childhood. And when less than nine years of age being tenderly denied the privilege of partaking of the Lord's Supper lest she might not understand the nature of the Sacrament, she said as tears flowed from wistful eyes "Mother, I do understand." About this time when stationed at Long Branch, after a sermon by Rev. Dr. G. F. Brown, (P. E.), she came to the altar, an earnest, weeping penitent. That night she asked, "Mother, what is it to believe? I know well enough what it is to repent." This being explained she was at once composed and went away a happy child in Jesus.

She united with the Church when about ten years of age. Was educated mostly at home until her thirteenth year, when she went to Pennington Seminary, where she graduated July 1870, with the highest honors of her class. Soon after she commenced the study of medicine, and in the fall of 1871 entered the Woman's Medical College, in Philadelphia, where she graduated March 1875, with distinguished honors. She remained several months at the Institution acting as assistant to the Resident Physician.

At the call of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society she consented, after much deliberation and prayer, to go to India. She sailed for that country January 1st, 1876, and upon her arrival at Bareilly entered immediately upon her work. January 1878 she was married to Rev. N. G. Cheney, American missionary at Ninai Tal. On the 30th of September, after only eight months of wedded life, she was seized with that terrible scourge, the Asiatic cholera, and after a struggle of only forty-eight hours, sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, and her pure spirit took its flight to the paradise of God.

Sister Cheney acquired the language of the natives with wonderful facility, and her quickness of perception seemed to forecast the wants of the people, which at once made her greatly successful.

She was much beloved for her kind and attractive bearing toward all. Her favorite chapter in the Bible, which she frequently perused, was the xiii. chap. of 1 Cor., and charity was the theme of her heart and life.

Her funeral, it is said, was the largest ever known in Ninai Tal. Many of the natives to whom she had ministered followed her remains weeping and bearing flowers with which they strewed her grave. The flag on the English Government building was at half mast in honor of the deceased, while the procession was passing by.

We extend our profoundest sympathy to Bro. and Sister Green, and join them in the earnest hope of that morning when "they shall come from the East and from the West."

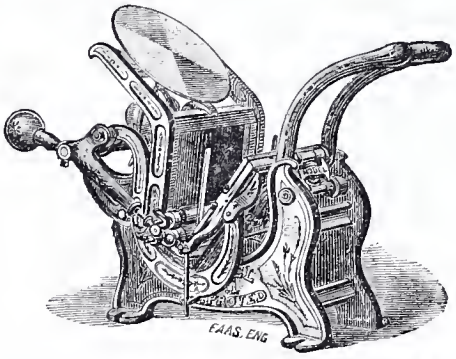
THE CELEBRATED
MODEL PRINTING PRESS



Self-Inking Press, same as above, $6, $13, $22, $35 and $45. Rotary Foot Power, $100 and $160.

Is saving business men hundreds of dollars a year wherever it is used, and nothing proves a better investment for either STORE or OFFICE. For the HOME there is nothing so fascinating as a

MODEL PRINTING PRESS,

and in the hands of MINISTERS, TRUSTEES and SUNDAY-SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS, it will do all the Church & Sunday-School Printing.

Anybody can manage the MODEL PRESS, and be able to do nice printing on it an hour after it has been received.

Twelve different styles. Presses for business printing, $10 to $22. Card Presses as low as $3 and $6. Rotary foot-power presses, $100 to $160. Over 6,000 in use, and Prize Medal awarded at Paris Exposition, showing the MODEL to be the leading Press of the world. Send 10 cents for profusely illustrated 124 page book entitled How to Print, and a copy of the Model Printer's Guide, with full particulars. Address all orders,

J. W. DAUGHADAY & CO.,
INVENTORS AND MANUFACTURERS,
723 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

"I have put it to a severe and critical test. I filled the chase full of type of different kinds, and to my admiration every letter came up beautifully. I print Tracts and everything else needed in a well ordered church. I showed one of these Tracts to a minister friend, but he would not believe it was done on a small press, nor would he be fully satisfied until he saw me print a number. He was amazed, and eyed the 'Model' as if to discover where the charm lay. I had never set a type before buying the 'Model,' and since that time, I have cleared more than one hundred dollars on it. I print on Mondays, the proverbial 'blue' day for ministers; but since I purchased the 'Model,' I have not known a single 'blue' day. In fact, Mondays have been the brightest days of the week.

THOMAS HANLON, D. D.

PRESIDENT.

This is a Religious Boarding School for both Sexes.

Its location is very healthful and convenient to Philadelphia and New York. We aim to give thorough instruction in every department under earnest Christian influence.

Our success the past forty years has been remarkable. While we have educated the youth up to a scholarship equal to the best of similar institutions, there has scarcely been a year without a precious revival of religion.

Our idea is, that higher education is dangerous and worse than ignorance unless given under decidedly religious influences. "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness," is a controlling belief of ours in the education of the youth committed to our care.

Our Rates are $225 per Year,

With a discount of 25 per cent. to the children of clergymen or to young men who are studying for the ministry.

We have every facility for comfort, including BATH-ROOMS—and HOT and COLD WATER on each hall.

We are situated on the Bound Brook Route, between Philadelphia and New York, and have an office of the Western Union Telegraph near the Seminary.

For full information send for a Catalogue. Address
